THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 13.

BEAUTY BY VALOR WON .- In Marlboro', Mass., Joseph Beauregard and Thos. Durham loved Miss Jennie Oysterhouse and agreed to settle the matter Marquis of Queensbury rules, and recently met in the Queensbury rules, and recently met in the ring. They fought for thirty minutes. To add to the interest their friends subscribed a purse of $50. In the betting Durham was the favorite by odds of 2 to 1, because of his superior science. In the first round, however, Beauregard got in a terrific blow on Durham's face, knocking him down and securing the first blood. Eight rounds were fought, the first one as well as the last one fought, the first one as well as "the last one ending clearly in favor of Beauregard. At the call of time to the eighth round Durham was unable to come to the scratch, and as graciously as possible surrendered the hon-ors of the occasion, including his interest in the girl and purse, to Beauregard. Forty people witnessed the affair.

THE ASSAULT ON MISS POWELL,-The principal interest in the trial, at Baltimore, of Walter L. Kilton, of Maine, for felonious assault upon Miss Henrietta Powell, of Matthews Court House, Va., centred in the tes-timony of the principals in the affair, which was given yesterday. The court room was packed with people. Miss Powell was the first to take the witness stand, and told the story of her ruin in a low voice. Kilton af-terwards took the stand in his own healf terwards took the stand in his own behalf and made a general denial of having used force in anything that he did. He claimed that Miss Powell submitted to his embraces and endearments, that she made no objection when he kissed her and that she gave tacit consent to the evil purpose which prompted him. The court then adjourned until to-day, when arguments will begin.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for. A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days. The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value, Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR. There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing.
